

Ionia Hospital Study Too Late, Says Lawmaker

LANSING (AP)—A legislator said "too late" Friday after the State Mental Health Department agreed to cooperate with any investigation by lawmakers of the Ionia State Hospital and the department.

Rep. Joseph Snyder, D-St. Clair Shores, said the investigation should have been made long ago.

Viet Nam War Medal Awarded

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson today presents the first Medal of Honor awarded for bravery in the war in South Viet Nam to Army Capt. Roger H. C. Donlon, 30, at a White House ceremony.

The trim soldier from Saugerties, N.Y., said he was "terribly proud" to receive the award. He is being honored for actions during a Communist Viet Cong assault last July 6 on Camp Nam Dong in South Viet Nam.

Despite shrapnel and grenade wounds in his leg, shoulder, stomach and arms, Donlon "personally led successful defense operations, repeatedly exposing himself to heavy enemy fire," the White House said earlier this week in announcing the award.

Donlon, a bachelor, was accompanied here by his widowed mother, Marian Donlon; his sister, Adrienne; and two brothers, Paul and Michael.

Nine surviving members of Donlon's Special Forces team who were with him at Camp Nam Dong last July also were invited to the ceremony in the White House East Room. Two others were killed during the action.

The award to Donlon was the first time the nation's highest medal has been given since 1957 when Lt. Col. John U. D. Page was honored posthumously for bravery in 1950 during the Korean War.

Kowalski New House Speaker

EAST LANSING (AP)—Rep. Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, has been named speaker of the state House of Representatives—the first Democrat to hold the post in 25 years.

Kowalski, an attorney and international representative for the United Auto Workers, was elected in a four-hour closed-door caucus of 71 of the 72 Democratic representatives to be seated Jan. 13. Walter Hyso of Hamtramck was ill.

Seven others were elected to leadership posts in balloting that apparently went smoothly despite overtones of friction before the caucus convened.

Post For Jacobetti
Albert Horrigan of Flint, assistant to Kowalski in his present position of minority floor leader, was named speaker pro-tem, a new post.

Robert Traxler of Bay City, a sophomore in the House, was elected majority floor leader. Associate and assistant floor leaders named were Harry Thorne of Dearborn Heights and F. Charles Raap of Muskegon. Raap returns to the legislature after a four-year absence.

William Ryan of Detroit was named caucus chairman and Arthur Law of Pontiac was named associate.

Kowalski beat out three other candidates for the speakership. They were Jacobetti, George Montgomery of Detroit and Law.

Wage Act Hits Few Farmers

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan's Minimum Wage Act of 1964 will affect only about 1,200 farmers on the state's some 105,000 farms, a Michigan State University agricultural economist estimates.

The law, which goes into effect Jan. 1, applies only to employers hiring 4 or more workers between 18 and 65 years of age for more than 13 weeks during any consecutive 12-month period, said Daniel Sturt.

He said most Michigan farmers hire fewer than four employees at a time.

He estimated farm operators constitute 50 per cent of the labor requirements on Michigan farms, other members of the farm family supply 30 per cent and only 20 per cent is hired.

Of the 20 per cent hired, Sturt said, 4 per cent are year-around employees and 16 per cent are seasonal workers.

Farmers will be allowed to make pay deductions for board, lodging, apparel or other goods and services, but only with approval of the State Wage Deviation Board, Sturt said. Deductions cannot exceed 40 per cent of total wage rates.

The law sets minimums of $1 an hour starting Jan. 1, $1.15 starting Jan. 1, 1966, and $1.25 starting Jan. 1, 1967.

Canadian Cabinet Code Outlined

OTTAWA, Canada (AP)—Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson has outlined a code of ethics and morality for his cabinet members and their staffs, his office said.

The code, set forth in a letter sent to all cabinet members, was a reaction to charges of bribery involving an aide to a minister. Last month Pearson ordered a judicial inquiry into the allegations.

"There is an obligation to act in a manner so scrupulous that it will bear the closest scrutiny," the letter said.

Snowfall Causes Many Accidents In Detroit Area

By The Associated Press
The skies over Michigan dumped four to eight inches of overnight snow on the southern and western parts of the state, the State Highway Department said.

The heavy snowfall followed a day of snow, freezing rain and frigid temperatures which forced school closings, cancellations of sports events and hundreds of minor accidents Friday.

Hundreds of Detroit-area motorists found their cars damaged by hit-run drivers and the windshields of their cars covered with sheets of ice Friday.

Hospitals around the state reported treating numerous cases of cuts and bruises suffered in falls on the ice.

Mariner Again On Course To Guiding Star

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Mariner 4, its light sensor fixed again on the guiding star Canopus, was slated to get a course-changing nudge today from a small rocket on the speeding spacecraft.

Scientists at Pasadena's Jet Propulsion Laboratory hope the brief firing of the small rocket—programmed for 20 seconds—will cause Mariner to pass within 8,600 miles of Mars next July 14.

This distance is considered ideal for a successful fly-by in the interplanetary race to take the best pictures yet of the planet.

Mariner gave its builders at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory some anxious moments Friday when it temporarily lost its fix on Canopus, then developed a disturbing wobble.

This caused a 24-hour delay in the mid-course maneuver originally set for Friday.

But the wobble stopped and the spacecraft's light sensor again found Canopus by late afternoon, thanks to a series of eight commands from the Woomera, Australia, tracking station.

The trouble developed when Mariner was 1,100,000 miles and seven days out from earth on its seven-month voyage. The spacecraft apparently was well in front of Zond 2, the competing vehicle launched by Russia at Mars six days ago.

Triple Slaying Arrests Anger Mississippi Town

Funds Raised To Aid Ousted Guard Generals

LANSING (AP)—A citizens' committee with members all over the state is helping finance and conduct the defense of two ousted Michigan National Guard Generals, a member said Friday.

"We want to help Michigan, the Michigan military establishment and national guard, the governor and the officers," said Zenon C. R. Hansen, general manager of the Lansing Division of White Motor Co.

The committee has been meeting with former State Adjutant General Maj. Gen. Ronald D. McDonald and former quartermaster general Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert.

Hansen said informal discussions of the generals' case led to a meeting of about 20 persons and the officers were invited to present their side of the story. The committee has been growing since, he said.

McDonald and Neifert were fired by Gov. George Romney Oct. 8, but reinstated Nov. 7 after Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley held that they must be given a hearing. The firing was in connection with a guard land, money, liquor scandal revealed in an auditor general's report.

Maj. Gen. Cecil Simmons, commanding general of the 46th Infantry Division, immediately suspended the general pending the hearing, which Romney said would come some time in mid-December.

Also fired Oct. 8 was Neifert's executive officer, Lt. Col. Versel Case Jr., who was not reinstated because he is not covered by state statute.

Plates For 1965 Move Out Fast

LANSING (AP)—The sale of 1965 license plates so far is "absolutely fantastic," Secretary of State James Hare said today.

Hare said he had never seen anything like it in his 10 years of office.

"We're five weeks ahead of our 1964 sale, when we had tabs, and more than 100,000 ahead of our previous high plate year in 1959," Hare said.

As of Friday, more than half a million of the new plates were sold, Hare reported. This figure wasn't reached until Jan. 9 last year.

Hare said he hoped there wouldn't be a slump in sales in late December and January.

"My chief concern is the long outside lines during the final few days of February, often under miserable weather conditions. But if motorists buy in December or January or even early February we can avoid the long lines, the waiting, the frayed tempers and the last-minute rush."

Parts Suppliers Facing Strikes

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers union announced tentative agreement on a new national labor contract with Eaton Manufacturing Co. late Friday.

Meanwhile, negotiations continued at two other major auto parts suppliers—Dana Corp. and Bendix Corp. Dana faced a strike deadline at noon (EST) today. The strike deadline at Bendix is 10 a.m. EST Monday.

Friday's 1 p.m. strike deadline at Eaton was postponed until Monday to give negotiators enough time to try and iron out local-level agreements which supplement the proposed national settlement.

Nelson Edwards, director of UAW's Eaton Department, said terms of the national settlement will be made public at the local union ratification meetings. These meetings will probably be held sometime late next week, he said.

The contract involves 5,000 UAW members in nine Eaton plants in Michigan, Ohio, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Ice Menaces 32 Ocean Ships

MONTREAL (AP)—St. Lawrence Seaway officials said Friday there may be a couple more days before the inland waterway is frozen tight by winter.

Ice was forming in the St. Lambert Locks, last barrier to the St. Lawrence River, as a result of a cold snap in the Montreal region. But the weather outlook was for milder temperatures during the week-end.

There were 32 ocean ships reported in the seaway. The seaway officially closed last Monday.

Governors Fail To Agree On GOP Leadership Shift

DENVER (AP)—Republican governors tried to hammer out today the final version of a statement proposing a change in the conservative leadership of their party.

But a stormy session—and long distance telephone calls—on Colorado Gov. John A. Love's mansion Friday night failed to produce any unanimous agreement among the 18 GOP governors and governors-elect summoned here for a showdown on a proposal to demand the ouster of national GOP chairman Dean Burch.

The assessment made by those who attended the session was that Burch would not be named in a formal statement to be issued later in the day. Instead, a majority of the state executives were expected to call for a more progressive leadership of their party.

The GOP governors thus were

Triple Slaying Arrests Anger Mississippi Town

Sheriff Faces Hearing With 20 Other Men

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—Anger, unrest and unanswered questions gripped this eastern Mississippi town today after the FBI arrested 21 white men Friday in connection with the murder of three civil rights workers last summer.

Twenty of the 21, including Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, Deputy Cecil Price and five Ku Klux Klansmen, were free on bond, awaiting a hearing in federal court at nearby Meridian Thursday.

The FBI charged 19 of the men with violating the civil rights of the three workers, and the other two as accessories.

Plot Bared By FBI
The FBI complaint said Price and nine of the others plotted the interception of the workers near Philadelphia and that it was part of the conspiracy that they "would threaten, assault, shoot and kill them."

The victims were Michael Schwerner and Andrew Goodman, two white New Yorkers, and James Chaney, a Negro of Meridian, Miss. They disappeared after going to Philadelphia from nearby Meridian to investigate a church bombing. Their bodies were found in an earth-fill dam 44 days later.

The big question as Philadelphia residents locked their doors and deserted their streets Friday night was whether any of the 21 men swept up in the FBI net would actually be charged with murder.

Christmas "Ruined"
Murder is not a federal crime unless it is committed on federal property. The FBI said it would turn over information to the state for possible murder prosecution.

Dist. Atty. William H. Johnson Jr., the state prosecutor for this red clay hill section of Mississippi, said he was studying the FBI charges, "but I am not in a position to say what action will be taken." Johnson said the next grand jury which could return murder indictments is scheduled to meet in February.

Philadelphia, a town of 6,000 which boasts livestock and lumber as its major industries, was a place of paradox after the news of the arrests swept the nation Friday.

"This has just ruined our Christmas," said one woman, who asked that her name not be used. "I wish they could have done it sooner, so it wasn't so close to Christmas."

A salesman, who also asked to remain anonymous, said, "I hate to try to go out selling Monday. I know this is going to slow things down."

Could Get 10 Years
And there was anger. "It seems like they are trying to make an example," one businessman said. "That's why it's so unfair."

Another man said he figured the 21 would be held under large bonds—"whatever figure was set by the Rev. Martin Luther King. You know, he's running our government."

The 19 men charged with violating the rights of the murdered men could get 10 years in prison, a fine of $5,000 each, or both, if they are convicted on the federal charges.

The other two charged as accessories could get three years in prison, a $500 fine, or both.

Philadelphia went about its business today—market day in a farming community—uncertain. Gov. Paul B. Johnson refused to comment on whether he would act to remove Sheriff Rainey or Deputy Price from office.

Also arrested were a city patrolman, Otha Neal Burkes, 71, and the Rev. Edgar Ray Killen, 39, a fundamentalist Baptist minister.

Photographer Threatened
The FBI roundup began shortly after 9 a.m. Friday when four agents, attired in trenchcoats against the chill weather, arrested Rainey and Price at the courthouse while a curious crowd waited outside.

They were whisked away in separate cars. The crowd was angry. A news photographer was threatened by a man with a knife.

Sixteen others were arrested in the Philadelphia area and in

Smiling Officer Chews Tobacco At Arraignment

Meridian, Miss. (AP)—Quickly and evenly. None of the men showed emotion.

"You do not have to make any statement before me," Miss Carter told the men. She said it was not necessary then for them to enter a plea.

Attorney Herman Alford requested a preliminary hearing for the entire group and the commissioner tentatively set the hearing for 10 a.m. Thursday—at the federal courthouse in downtown Meridian where she usually performs her duties.

At the hearing, the federal government will have to offer sufficient evidence for the defendants to be bound over for grand jury action.

Miss Carter set temporary bonds of $5,000 each and the 18 defendants were released after arraignment on property bonds.

As the defendants got ready to leave the lounge, someone jokingly asked Rainey if he had a ride and why he did not return to his county with the persons who had brought him here—a reference to FBI agents who arrested him.

"If I can't hitchhike a ride, I'll walk back," the sheriff said. And he walked out chomping his tobacco.

Later, Price, in a long distance telephone interview with broadcast station WGST of Atlanta, Ga., said he had no comment about the possibility of murder charges being placed against him.

Price said he didn't think he was guilty of intimidating the three civil rights workers.

Jubilant Roman Welcome Given Returning Pope

ROME (AP)—Pope Paul VI came home today to a jubilant Roman welcome by tens of thousands after a dramatic visit to India that he said outdid his dreams.

An Italian airline jet carrying the pope nonstop from Bombay touched down at Fiumicino Airport at 3:49 p.m. (9:49 a.m. EST) to a 21-gun Italian military salute. Premier Aldo Moro and cardinals of the Roman Catholic church were present to welcome the 67-year-old pontiff.

Also arrested were a city patrolman, Otha Neal Burkes, 71, and the Rev. Edgar Ray Killen, 39, a fundamentalist Baptist minister.

Railroad Depot Burns In London; Two Men Perish

LONDON (AP)—Fire destroyed the Bishopsgate Railroad Freight Depot here today and burned to death two men who were found there. Their bodies were worked as firemen searched the ruins.

The fire, one of London's worst since the World War II blitz, also destroyed thousands of Christmas packages.

All trains servicing the big depot were canceled as firemen battled three hours before bringing the flames under control.

And Gov. Paul Fannin of Arizona, elected to fill Goldwater's Senate seat, made it clear he would have some dissenting remarks when the statement was issued.

Fannin hadn't expected to attend the sessions called here by Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie, chairman of the conference, but flew in Friday night and called the meeting irresponsible.

Smylie had pushed for a resolution demanding Burch's replacement. But he encountered opposition to this from such party liberals as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, keynoter of the San Francisco convention which nominated Goldwater for president. The word from both was: no personalities.

Probate Judges Back Blaney As Training School

MARQUETTE—Upper Peninsula probate judges Friday endorsed proposals to acquire Blaney Park Resort and convert it into a training school and to establish an Upper Peninsula correctional, educational and training center for juveniles in Marquette.

Meeting at Northern Michigan University, nine of the 15 members of the Upper Peninsula Probate Judges Association backed both proposals without a dissenting vote.

They also supported establishment of a basic training school to prepare trainees for more advanced courses under the Manpower Development Training Act and favored legislation to pave the way for conservation work projects in the state under the Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund.

Probate Judge Robert Payant of Iron Mountain presided at the day-long meeting.

The Blaney Park proposal was outlined by the Rev. John B. Duncan, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Ishpeming, who said Stewart Earle of Hermansville has offered to sell the 22,000-acre resort in Schoolcraft County to the state for use as an educational facility.

The proposal calls for converting the big resort 20 miles east of Manistowic into a training school for 500 boys who "are not able to handle the academic program in high school" and hopefully to prevent them from dropping out of school and becoming problem juveniles.

Mr. Duncan stressed that the school would be a preventive facility, not a corrective facility.

No Cost To Students
The school, which pupils would attend without cost to their families, would be state-supported. It has been endorsed by the State Department of Public Instruction and at least 15 members of the Legislature, Mr. Duncan said.

He said cost of converting the resort into a school has been estimated at about $2,706,000 and annual operational expenses at $1,230,150.

Among reasons cited by the pastor for favoring the proposal were:

1. There is at present no such school in the Upper Peninsula.
2. Expense of establishing, equipping and maintaining schools of this sort are beyond the means of local communities.
3. The site is available now at an apparently reasonable cost and would lend itself to expansion.

Govt. Approves Order Change

The U.S. Department of Agriculture today issued a final decision in favor of amending the Federal milk marketing order for the Michigan Upper Peninsula area.

Agricultural Marketing Service officials said the decision, subject to approval by producers supplying milk to the marketing area, is based on evidence submitted at a public hearing at Escanaba, Aug. 20, requested by producers.

If the amendment is adopted, it will establish the bottling milk (Class I) price by adding a fluid differential to a basic formula (Minnesota-Wisconsin price series). The price then would be subject to adjustment based on producer receipts and bottling milk sales in this Michigan market and in the Northeastern Wisconsin market.

The proposed changes in the method of computing the bottling milk price would not change the present price level, officials said.

Producer approval will be determined through polling cooperative associations, which represent at least three-fourths of dairy farmers serving the Michigan Upper Peninsula market.

Copies of the final decision may be obtained from Market Administrator Earl E. Gulland, P.O. Box 505, Room 308, First National Bank Building, Escanaba.

Yule Meeting For Rapid River Fellowship

RAPID RIVER—The Women's Fellowship met at the Congregational Church parish hall Wednesday evening for an annual Christmas party. Devotions were led by Mrs. Charles Bowen. The Fellowship under the direction of Mrs. Stanley Rushford, president, made arrangements for the serving of refreshments following the Sunday School Christmas program Sunday, Dec. 20. The Fellowship will serve the banquet meal for the Volunteer Firemen's annual Christmas party. Christmas boxes will be packed by Mrs. Grace Burnett and Mrs. Esther Caswell and sent to needy families. The Fellowship voted to support the ministers' retirement and social welfare funds of the United Church of Christ.

Following the business meeting, everyone exchanged Christmas gifts. An unusual Christmas tree made from thistles grown in Ohio centered the gift table. Mrs. Lowell Columb and Mrs. Leslie Caswell were in charge of the decorations and refreshments.

Society Meeting

St. Charles Borromeo Rosary Altar Society of Rapid River will meet Tuesday, Dec. 8 at 8 p. m. in the parish hall immediately following the 7:30 p. m. mass. It is important that all women of the parish attend.

Attend Tea

Rapid River Home Economics Club had eight of its members present at the annual home extension Christmas tea held in Escanaba on Tuesday. They were Mrs. Ray LaBumbar, Mrs. Andrew Wils, Mrs. Dell Kniskern, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. Roland Dault, Mrs. Herman Stenlund, Mrs. Sandy Short and Mrs. Zeph Rushford. Mrs. Charles Bowen represented the Ensign Town and Country Club at the tea.

Prison Trailers To Speed Works

Mobile prison camp trailers may some day be centers for work on conservation projects in the Upper Peninsula.

S. J. Gilman, assistant director of the Michigan Department of Corrections in charge of the prison camp program, has announced that contracts were let recently for mobile camp trailers to be used in the state.

"We expect to receive two new trailers in about 90 days, and this coming spring these units will operate out of Camp Waterloo (in the Southern Lower Peninsula) for the first few months in order to gain the practical experience of this new venture."

After that, Gilman said, one of the units may be set up in the Upper Peninsula, probably operating out of Camp Cusino in Alger County.

The trailers would house prison trustees and permit them to be moved from place to place to provide the labor for short term conservation projects.

The Upper Peninsula now has four permanent corrections-conservation camps — located at Cusino, in the Porcupine Mountains, in Baraga County and near the Tahquamenon State Park. Inmates at the camps are employed in a variety of conservation projects, but they cannot be profitably assigned to tasks very far from the camps because of the time that would be consumed transporting the workers from the camp to the project sites.

Mobile camp trailers would solve this problem, permitting the inmates to work anywhere in the Upper Peninsula. The Conservation Department has a priority list of projects that could be undertaken by inmates operating out of mobile camps.

"This will be a new experience for all of us," Gilman said, "but it is something that several other states have already experienced. The conservation department is looking forward particularly to this, for it will enable them to accomplish short term conservation projects which, at the present time, are beyond the reach of existing camps."

Tuc-Me-In Motel Bought By Lequia And Ladouceur

The Tuc-Me-In Motel at 2414 Ludington St. has had a recent change in ownership and the new owners are Kenneth Lequia and his father-in-law, W. D. Ladouceur of Escanaba.

The purchase of the motel was made by them from Hank and Ruth DeGeest of Grand Rapids about two weeks ago. The Grand Rapids couple had purchased the motel from Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dahlquist of Willow Creek Road, Escanaba, about three months ago.

Lequia is owner of the Memory Lane Motel at 2415 Ludington St., an enterprise he has operated for the past three and one-half years. Ladouceur is a partner with him only in the Tuc-Me-In Motel venture.

The American Legion Post No. 82 will meet Monday, Dec. 7, with Richard Morrison, Legion Department State Service Officer present to present information regarding changes made for veterans pensions. Veterans, their wives and widows are invited to attend.

The Delta County Retarded Childrens Association will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday at 8 p. m. at the John F. Kennedy School. All members are expected to attend. The public is cordially invited to this and all meetings. Important school issues will be discussed and committee reports will be heard. Lunch will be served at the close of the meeting.

Fly Fishing On Escanaba Urged

A public hearing will be held at 7:30 p. m., Jan. 11, in the Escanaba City Hall on a proposal to restrict a portion of the Escanaba River to fishing with artificial flies only.

Dr. Howard Tanner, Lansing, chief of the Conservation Department's fish section, and Wayne Tody, Lansing, in charge of species management for the fish section, will conduct the hearing.

The proposal calls for limiting fishing on the Escanaba from Boney Falls down to a point above the mouth of flies only and possibly imposing a 10-inch minimum size limit on trout taken in that portion. Possibility of reducing the reel limit also may be considered.

The proposal cropped up at a similar public hearing held in Marquette last September when a plan to restrict part of the Salmon Trout River in Marquette County to fly fishing only was discussed.

Most of those present at the Marquette hearing opposed the Salmon Trout proposal, largely on the grounds that land on both sides of that stream is in private ownership so that the restriction would be largely meaningless to the general public.

Another public hearing was held the following day in Ewen on a proposal to restrict eight miles of the Middle Branch of the Ontonagon River to fly fishing. It attracted little attention.

At a result, the Conservation Department scrapped both proposals.

But Roy Olson of Escanaba, who was present at the Marquette hearing, told Roger Wicklund, Lansing, department fisheries biologist who conducted the hearing, that a number of fishermen in the Escanaba area were in favor of having a "flies only" stretch set aside on the Escanaba River.

In response to Olson's request, the department arranged to conduct the public hearing on the Escanaba River proposal in January. If public sentiment at the hearing favors the proposal, the matter presumably would be referred to the Michigan Conservation Commission for final action.

Although portions of some streams in the Lower Peninsula have been set aside for fly fishing only, there is no restriction on any Upper Peninsula waters now.

A part of the Fox River north of Seney once was restricted to fly fishing only, with a 10-inch minimum size limit, but the restriction was removed several years ago.

Delta Median In Number Of Senior Citizens

A change in attitude, a critical need and a preview of financial and community resources — this was the triple theme of a conference on housing for senior citizens held Wednesday in Marquette. The session, sponsored by Michigan State University and U. P. institutions, was one of three held this week in the Upper Peninsula. The first was held on the campus of Michigan Tech on Tuesday and the other at Sault Tech.

C. M. Edwards, housing specialist with MSU, reported that the percentage of population in the U. P. aged 65 and over, ranges from 7.5 per cent in Chippewa County to 14.3 in Houghton. The percentage of the population in the senior citizen bracket in Delta county is 10.3.

Donald Garrison of the Community Facilities Administration regional office in Chicago told the 30 organization representatives that, in planning housing for senior citizens, communities need to consider the needs for privacy, independence, security and involvement. Dr. Claud Bosworth of Northern Michigan University and other speakers stressed that many older people no longer expect or desire to live with their children, but consider such things as transportation, finances, facilities and services.

Reporting on Kiwani Manor, a senior citizen housing project just completed in Charlotte, Jason Bradford of that city reviewed the need for strong community support and urged the U. P. to take advantage of guidance and leadership available among retired business and professional people. Bradford said Charlotte's housing project was located near the downtown business and civic center to take advantage of existing recreational facilities in the community.

Journalism Class Visits Daily Press

The journalism class of Newberry High School made its second annual field trip to the Escanaba Daily Press on Friday, visiting the newspaper and observing the operations of its several departments.

Charles "Chuck" Vedic is the journalism teacher, and with Charles Flower, counselor, accompanied the 21 students on their trip to Escanaba. This is the third year that Newberry High School has offered journalism as a subject.

Bank in Marquette's said area banks have no set policy for financing senior citizen housing since it is a rather new development, but stressed that banks wish to cooperate. Good planning, strong community support and cooperative financing through government agencies would enable local financial institutions to extend themselves further in the field, Mattson said. He felt the area should consider needs for apartments with two and three bedrooms, for semi-apartments with central dining facilities and for long-term care units.

Death Claims Perry Mark

McMILLAN—Perry C. Mark died unexpectedly at his home in McMillan at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday.

He was born in McMillan Nov. 15, 1903, and was a graduate of a high school connected with Ferris Institute at Big Rapids. He attended Northern Michigan College at Marquette and the University of Minnesota. He was a teacher at Bates Township School in Iron River five years. In 1935 he established Perry's Bar in McMillan, which he and his wife had operated since.

Mr. Mark served as Columbus Township supervisor two terms, was a member of Columbus Township School Board 25 years, a member of Luce County school board for several years, a member of McMillan Lodge 400, F. & A. M. and the Newberry B. P. O. Lodge 1705.

He is survived by his widow, Nora, one son, William, his mother, Mrs. Clara Taylor, five grandchildren, also a brother, Albert of Naubinway.

A Masonic memorial service was held at 8 p. m. Thursday at the Beaulieu Funeral Home. Services were held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Methodist Church in McMillan with the Rev. Stephen Chapko and the Rev. Emmett Coons officiating. Burial was in Columbus Township Cemetery.

Supervisors Of Peninsula Elect Gustafson Again

Harold F. Gustafson of Ensign, former president of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors, Friday was elected president of the Upper Peninsula Association of Supervisors.

Gustafson will take over from Alex Goldade of Chippewa County at the close of today's business meeting at the House of Representatives.

Goldade has been elected president of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors for next year and, though nominated, did not actively seek reelection to the U. P. post.

Gustafson defeated Lindsley Frenette of Schoolcraft County in a close vote that the supervisors later made unanimous.

Phil Miron of Ford River

Township, Delta County, was re-elected secretary of the organization and Carl Corneliusson of Marquette County was re-elected vice president.

Also elected were two directors — Frenette from the eastern half and Francis Drake of Iron County from the west.

The annual meeting convened at 1:45 p. m. Friday and heard reports by Glenn Gregg, U. P. manager of the Michigan Department of Conservation, Marquette; Donald Zettler, regional forester for the Conservation Department, Marquette; Sherwood Trotter, supervisor of Hiawatha National Forest, Escanaba, and William E. Denison, secretary of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors, Lansing.

A capsule summary hitting points of their statements:

Gregg: The Conservation Department will complete a 10-point reorganization program this week designed to improve its service to the public and provide a foundation for future work. Work needs to be done in modernizing conservation laws, a water-resource control program and in total development of recreational facilities.

Zettler: There is great need to expand and improve U. P. camp ground facilities, and this is being done as funds become available. In 1963 there were 38 camp grounds with 312 family camp sites. In 1965 we will have ready 50 camp grounds with 476 sites.

Trotter: The Forest Service is working on rural development, assisting in the development of programs to control pollution and water levels of our lakes. In the tourist and recreational field it is planned to set up two roadside information centers in the Upper Peninsula, one east of Rapid River and another west of St. Ignace to induce tourists to stay and enjoy the area.

Denison: Reapportionment of county boards is coming whether you like it or not. The Supreme Court made that clear in its "one-man, one-vote" rulings. The most that the county can do is try to shape the legislation covering reapportionment.

Bierlein, Kusey Named District Park Supervisors

Appointment of supervisors for nine new state park districts in Michigan was announced this week under the Conservation Department's latest phase of reorganizational moves.

Promoted to supervisor of park operations in the western half of the Upper Peninsula is William Kusey, manager of Muskegon state park. Kusey, a 10-year veteran of the Department, will be stationed at Baraga, according to Glenn C. Gregg, regional manager for the Upper Peninsula who announced the appointment.

Heading up the Department's park program in the eastern end of the Upper Peninsula is Leonard A. Bierlein Sr. Formerly an assistant park manager for the region, Bierlein has already transferred to his new district headquarters at Newberry.

Recreation Is No. 1 Challenge For Supervisors

The Upper Peninsula Association of supervisors got two pats on the back at their dinner meeting at the House of Representatives Friday night and some counsel.

The compliments and the suggestions came from Lawrence Rubin, executive secretary of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, and Jean Worth, editor of the Escanaba Daily Press.

Rubin said that tolls on the Mackinac Bridge ($3.75) should be reduced and that prospects for action by the Michigan Legislature in 1965 to permit revenue bonds with State of Michigan general obligation bonds are brighter than previously, but that even if the tolls are cut, there will remain a problem.

Rubin said that present revenue bonds on the bridge pay 4.26 per cent interest or $4,242,000 a year and that this could be cut to 3.25 per cent interest if the state uses its full faith and credit to guarantee the payment of the bridge debt of nearly $100 million. The refunding would save interest of $1 million a year but permit reduction of the toll not more than $1 (to $2.75 per car).

U. P. Not "Sold"
The state, the bridge official said, could refinance the bonds with no fear of charges against the general fund or highway funds unless there were a war with gas rationing or some such emergency.

Rubin said that a realistic view of prospects would have to discount hopes of retiring the bridge debt with additions to the gasoline tax. "Any attempt to reduce tolls through gasoline or license tax additions will be met with considerable resistance," he said.

He declared that no group is closer to Michigan's grass roots government than the supervisors and he urged them to use their influence to obtain state legislation to implement the new constitution's permission to refund bridge's revenue bonds.

But even with this done he suggested there will remain the problem of 33 per cent of summer bridge users spending 4 days or less in the Upper Peninsula. Fifteen per cent of them stay only a day on their round trips. "It is impossible to enjoy even half of the attractions available in the U. P. in four days or less," said Rubin. "Yet one third of the motorists crossing the bridge northbound have not been persuaded to see these attractions."

Recreation Business
"Many of your supervisors have supported the Upper Peninsula Tourist Association efforts and promotional programs with hard cash, but this has not been true throughout the Upper Peninsula, notwithstanding that it has been proven that the tourist industry is the best cash crop we have."

"There is much to be done that will benefit this area in addition to reducing Mackinac Bridge tolls."

Worth told the supervisors that "once upon a time you were expected only to take care of the tax roll, stay relatively sober and help the widows get some welfare aid. Now you're being asked to end poverty, prevent school dropouts, bar radiation and pollution, protect the deer herd and make the local economy zing."

"This last job shouldn't be the duty of government, you shouldn't have to try to make the payrolls that pay the taxes you assess, but if you don't who will? Free enterprise industry will locate where it can make a profit, but the recreation business is unique and you are in a unique position of responsibility to it. It leans heavily on government facilities like highways, parks, forests, waterways and other things under government control."

UPCAP Project
"Government aid will be strongly influential in recreational business development. Never have government officials had such an economic responsibility before. Our Upper Peninsula supervisors have made a splendid contribution to the economy in this field through their creation and support of UPCAP. Harold Dettman of St. Ignace, a Mackinac County supervisor and now president of UPCAP, (Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Progress) headed the committee which created the recreation industry investment program to be launched in January."

"With this the Upper Peninsula will start moving as never before in commercial recreational development. The true dimension of our economic opportunity is greater than when the pioneers came here. The biggest trees and the mineral outcrops are gone, but there's enormous wealth still in our mineral resources and huge and growing wealth in our forests. And compounding these treasures is the new value of the area for recreation. The 'good old days' never offered the opportunities that exist in the Upper Peninsula today. You people are leaders and will point them out."

Bay College Hosts Seniors

Seniors of 21 Delta County area high schools have been invited to become better acquainted with opportunities in higher education by visiting Bay de Noc Community College during December. The program is a refinement of last year's Visiting Day, and is offered as a community service to observe college life.

Under the direction of Sam Lind, admissions counselor, and assisted by the student body, visiting seniors will spend the day participating in discussions, classes, and other college activities.

Visitors will receive a class schedule for the day and may attend any of the classes they wish. The college faculty has agreed to let guests join in class discussions and ask questions if they wish.

"All elements of the college are cooperating in this program," said Lind. "We are hopeful that schools will encourage their students to take advantage of this opportunity. We are not interested in obtaining enrollment commitments from the visiting students, but we definitely hope to dispel the mystery of college and encourage more students to seek additional training beyond high school."

A similar program last year drew approximately 120 students from 13 schools. Participation this year is expected to exceed 200 students.

Deer Kill Was Third Highest In State's History

Michigan hunters scored their third highest take in the state's history during the 1964 firearm season with a kill of nearly 118,000 whitetails, according to a preliminary estimate of the Conservation Department.

Results of the Department's traffic counts, which will be cross-checked by a postcard survey of licensed sportsmen, point to a harvest of 68,850 bucks and 48,750 antlerless deer.

Both figures are down from last season when hunters took home 124,000 deer, Michigan's second best kill on record.

Compared with a year ago, the region's harvest fell by about 8,500 animals, totaling 41,500 bucks and 35,000 antlerless deer.

In the Upper Peninsula, sportsmen fared about the same as last season, taking 19,550 bucks and 12,550 antlerless whitetails. Overall, they came within 400 animals of matching their 1963 success.

ELECTED Worshipful Master of Delta Lodge No. 195, F.&A.M., was Verne M. Johnson, not Dr. Vernon K. Johnson as erroneously reported by the Daily Press on Friday. Verne M. Johnson is a wholesale drug representative and lives at 2500 14th Ave. S. He and other officers-elect will be installed at ceremonies accompanied by a short program at the Masonic Temple at 8 tonight.

Michigan Bell Plans Children's Holiday Party

More than 84 boys and girls are expected to attend the 4th annual Christmas party Michigan Bell Telephone Company will give for the children of its Escanaba area employees Dec. 12.

Scene of the festivities, which begin at 2 p. m., will be the John Lemmer School.

The children, from 3 to 13 years of age, will be entertained by films and stage acts. In addition, there will be gifts from Santa Claus for every child.

Parents, meanwhile, will gather at a coffee social, elsewhere in the building.

Washington PTA Meeting Tuesday

Regular meeting of the Washington School Parent Teacher Association will be held Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 8 p. m. at the school. Superintendent of schools, Luther Barrett, will speak about the financial situation of the school system and Tom Hughson will show a film, "Our Schools Have Kept Us Free." Glen Gamble will report on the M. E. A.

Warning To Supervisors

William Dennison is secretary of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors. He addressed the annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Association of Supervisors in Escanaba Friday. Dennison tries to tell the supervisors what they like to hear, but he's making strange noises these days.

He's telling the supervisors that they'd better push for some legislation in the session of the Legislature starting in January to permit the counties to reapportion their county boards of supervisors. Unless the counties revamp their boards the courts are going to do it.

"I think it's the job of the present boards of supervisors to do it in a year or it's going to be done for them," said Dennison.

There have been storm signals flying on the issue in Michigan—and throughout the nation—for some months, but the zero hour approaches with reconvening of the Legislature.

Circuit Judge George Searl of Kent County (Grand Rapids) has ruled that unless the Legislature changes the setup for the Kent County Board of Supervisors so it can be reapportioned on a population basis, he will do it. The year 1965 is the time of decision.

Dennison supports the old maxim: If you can't beat 'em, join 'em. The U.S. Supreme Court has set up the one-man, one-vote principle for apportionment and there is no higher authority to which to appeal from the decision.

Dennison believes that the legislation that's coming will set up categories for county organization on a population basis, with perhaps three supervisors in small population counties, 5, 7, 11, etc., in counties with larger population.

He thinks Wayne (Detroit) County might wind up with about 15 supervisors under such a plan. It now has 122 supervisors. If Wayne were to reapportion its county board on a basis of one vote for the township with the smallest population and proportionate representation for the more populous units, Wayne would wind up with a county board of supervisors of 1,400 members.

Since this is obviously ridiculous some other plan must be used.

Dennison is urging the present supervisors to push legislation that would set up population districts and elect one supervisor in each so that district representation would be preserved.

He is opposed to electing supervisors at large in a county and he is against "weighted" voting, in which a supervisor would be given enough votes to serve the proportion of population he was representing. The trouble with weighted voting, he maintains, is that while one supervisor might have 50 votes for his 50,000 population and another supervisor one vote for his 1,000 population, the latter supervisor might be eloquent and the other supervisor tongue-tied, so that there would be a great inequity in influence, no matter how many votes were cast.

Dennison says that the supervisors of Michigan have Hobson's choice about reapportionment of county boards of supervisors. They'll be wise to accept such counsel and support immediate legislative correction of the great inequity in apportionment before the courts move in.

Finding The Way

The Turn Of The Road

By RALPH W. LOEW, D. D.

It's the turn in the road that gives delight to the journey. The expressways are functional, but the roads that wind up the hillside are exciting. Do you remember driving through the tense traffic, past the factories, beyond the junkheaps of abandoned automobiles and the dreariness of many neighborhoods? Suddenly there is the turn of the road and before you a quiet landscape that gives a renewal of purpose.

So it is to come upon Dag Hammarskjöld's "Markings." This posthumously printed record of thoughts and personal examination is the testimony of a man who lived in the midst of tension and never lost the landscape. This is a kind of diary and yet there is no mention of the famous names, the historic tensions and the day-by-day dreariness of the crisis.

Listen to these guidelines and aphorisms, written during such crises as the Congo and the international tensions:

"It is more important to be aware of the grounds for your own behavior than to understand the motives of another."

"A successful lie is doubly a lie, an error to be corrected is heavier than truth: only an uncompromising honesty can reach the bedrock decency which you should always expect to find, even under the layers of evil."

"Do not seek death. Death will find you. But seek the road which makes death a fulfillment."

Hammarskjöld was certain that life is meaningful and he writes with excitement of those occasions which brought him this reassurance. That conviction upheld him in the long and difficult period of the journey.

He was wealthy and could have escaped all of this. He had social prestige and could have been aloof from this position which heaped criticisms upon him from both Communists and the democracies. He had a worthy name in his homeland of Sweden and yet he gave himself unstintingly to a cause which ultimately cost him his life in a plane crash in Africa.

Always there was this burning certainty that "my life sur-render had a goal. From that moment on I have known that it means not look back and to take on thought for the morrow."

That is why it is like coming to the turn of the road to come upon this book. That is why this book is valuable whether a spiritual irritant or a sublime revelation of one man's struggle.

We can take fresh courage in the ability of the human mind to triumph and the spirit of man to do more than to endure. Too many times our religious quest misses this dimension.

The great faith is to those who share in the burden, live with the daily routines and are never overwhelmed. In the midst of the routines, there is the remembrance of the landscape.

They know what it is to experience with St. Paul: "We are troubled on every side yet not distressed; we are perplexed yet not in despair; persecuted yet not forsaken; cast down but not destroyed."

Blessed is that person—and it could be any one of us—who comes to the turn of the road and understands the perspective.

Red Hunt Spasm Was A Shame, Truman Declares

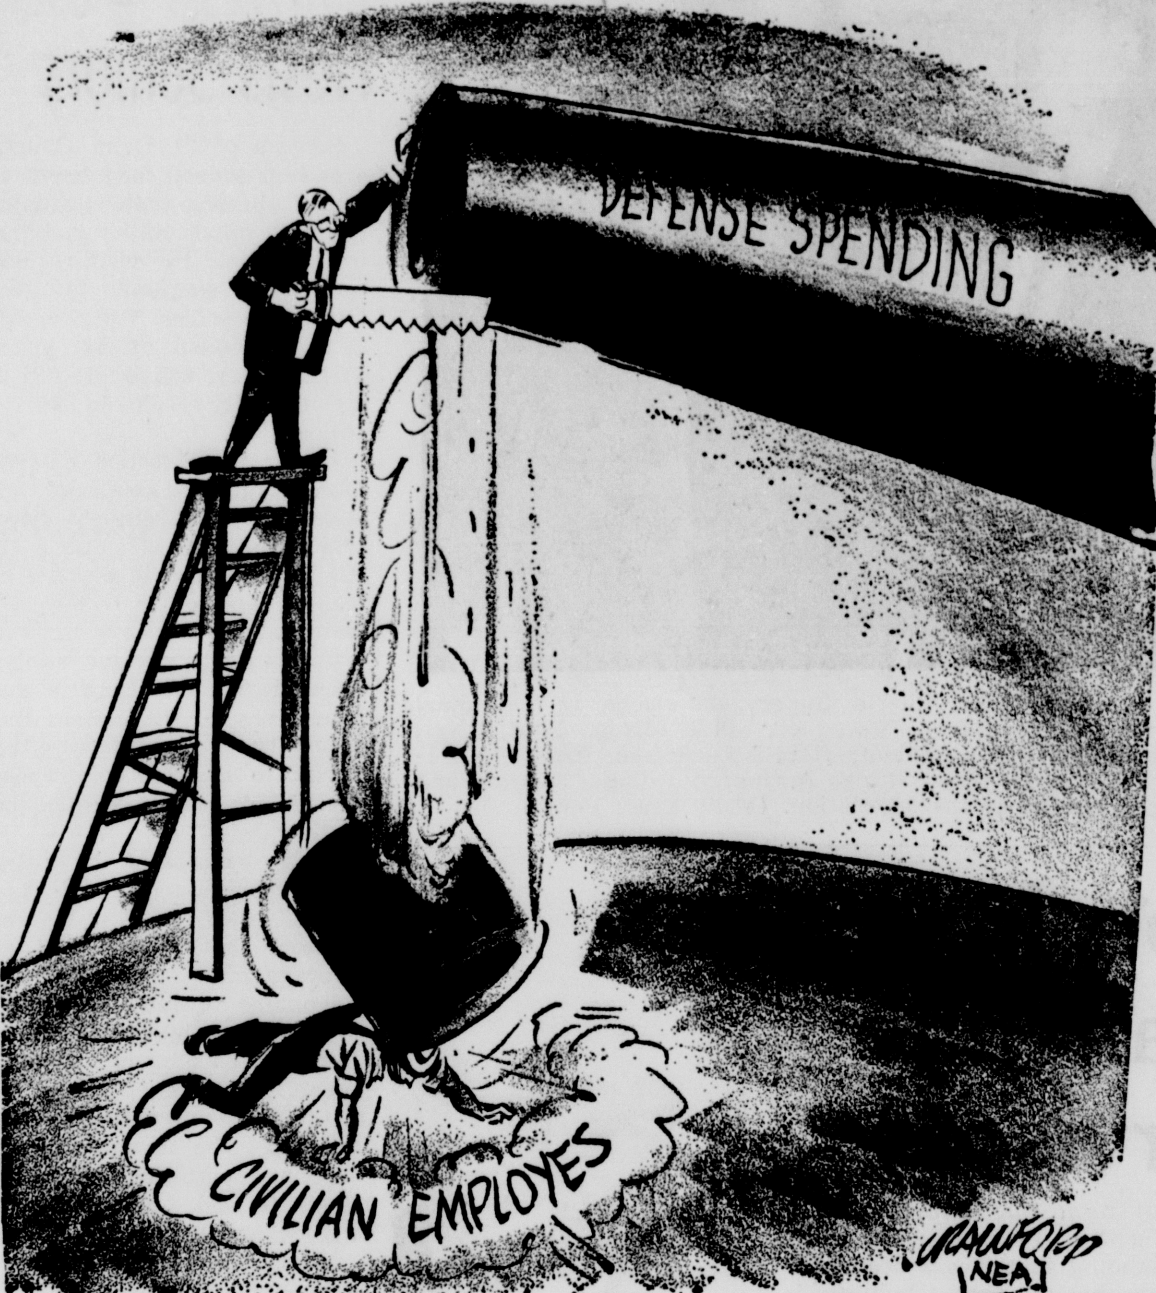

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says the U. S. can survive anything "if we don't lose our heads and throw away the one thing that makes the country great—and that's our freedom."

Truman, speaking on a taped television program to be shown nationally, discussed the Communist-hunting periods of the late 1940s and early 1950s, which was led by the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, R-Wis.

"What happened was a shame," Truman said. "There were more than a million names reported in this spasm that the country had at the time—and it was a terrible thing and it should never have happened."

"The McCarthy outfit never did get enough evidence to convict a single person—or to even have a single person tried."

Peace Has Its Casualties, Too

SANTA and the SINGING TURTLE

SYNOPSIS: Prince Chad soon to be King of Razenpie sets out to visit Santa Claus. Acting King Kerchew orders his servant Womp to see to it the Prince never returns so that he himself can remain king.

CHAPTER TWO
THE PRINCE
MEETS THE TURTLE

Prince Chad rushed to his room. He hurriedly pulled on his boots and his big winter coat and his gloves. He yanked open all the bureau drawers and looked under the bed and even on the chandelier where he sometimes tossed things, but he could not find his red woolen hat.

He was in a terrible hurry. He could hear King Kerchew sputtering and pounding the table in the dining room and shouting for Womp, his servant. He knew Kerchew would order Womp to stop him from going to Santa Land. The Prince was afraid of the servant because he was one of those who knew that Womp was really a man with magic powers.

"I'll look just one last place," thought Chad. He climbed on a chair and peered over the closet shelf. There, wrapped in tissue paper, was the gold and jeweled crown he would wear when he became king on Christmas day.

He dragged the crown down and put it on his head. He looked at himself in the mirror. He thought he looked a little strange wearing a crown with his big winter coat but it was better than nothing. Anyway, he thought, it would show Santa that he really was a king, or would be soon.

He tiptoed out of his room and down the long stairs to the front door. He was out without a sound. But Womp heard nevertheless. He wrapped himself in a big, black cloak and followed the boy out the door.

The Prince had no idea how to get to Santa Land, but he was certain there was such a place for he had read about it often enough in his books. He knew Santa would understand his problem and help him to have a Christmas party for all the people of Razenpie on the day he became king.

He went up to an old woman who was staggering under a load of firewood she carried on her back. "Please," said Chad. "Could you tell me the way to Santa Land? I am off to see Santa Claus."

The old woman stared at him. She was amazed at the crown he wore and even more amazed at his question.

"King Kerchew has forbidden all mention of that name in this kingdom," she quavered. "Are you a spy from the palace sent to trap me?"

"I am Frederick Chadwick John, soon to be King of Razenpie, and I am on my way to Santa Land. But I must hurry, for time is short and I do not know the way."

"Oh, Sire," quavered the old woman, "not knowing what to believe and scared to death she would lose her head. 'I can't help you. I dare not. You must not ask your question of anyone in Razenpie.' She shut her eyes and bent again under her load."

The Prince sighed and started away. He had not gone three steps when he felt the old woman's hand on his arm. "The North Road," she whispered.

She was amazed at his crown and amazed at his question.

"I'd take the North Road if I were you," cried Chad. But the old woman was gone. He waved after her and, straightening his crown, set out on the North Road. Womp, the man with magic powers, trailed behind.

The North Road was a long road and 10 hours later the end was not yet in sight. He thought the Prince was sure he had passed far beyond the Kingdom of Razenpie.

He lay down by the side of the road to rest. He wished he had brought something to eat, but it didn't matter too much because he was so tired he was soon fast asleep. He slept until dawn and would have slept on and on, but he was awakened by a song.

He sat up and rubbed his eyes and looked around. No one was in sight but the song was everywhere and the voice that sang was the sweetest he had ever heard.

"Where are you? Who are you?" he cried jumping up. The song stopped. The Prince peered up at the trees and into the bushes and down the road. "Whoever you are," he begged, "please don't stop."

"And whoever are you?" snapped a voice at his feet.

Looking down, the astonished Prince saw a turtle poking his head from behind a rock.

"I - I heard singing," stammered the Prince.

"You heard me," said the creature. "I am George, the Singing Turtle, and I was practicing my scales when you so rudely interrupted."

Tomorrow: The Snow Man

Washington Comment

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NFA) — One of the unhappy aspects of the war in South Viet Nam is the personal tragedy of our ambassador, Gen. Maxwell Taylor.

A few days back I was talking with a friend of Taylor's just in from Saigon. "He tries so hard," says this friend "He works so hard. He is highly intelligent. But he can't unbend."

"He stands there stiffly and awesomely before people and asks them to be frank with him and tell him what they think and what's going on."

"But they can't. He seems so formal and distant and mathematical that neither the Americans nor the Vietnamese can relax around him."

"So the Vietnamese don't confide in him and tell him the cold facts on what's happening and what they're really thinking."

As a result, Taylor can't get to grips with the real problems and often ends up shadowboxing.

If we're to make a success of being advisers to the Vietnamese, we must get close to them. As one eager Viet officer put it to me: "We've got to know each other's thoughts, even without saying them."

Otherwise, this very difficult kind of two-country operation doesn't work.

In Saigon a short time back I had a two-hour personal talk with the then foreign minister of South Viet Nam. He said his greatest need was for close personal American friends, men he could sit down with infor-

Ann Landers

Millie Always Crying To Mama

Dear Ann: My wife and I have been married three years. Millie always was a mama's girl but I thought she's grow up when we moved out of town. The reason I asked for a transfer was to get Millie 400 miles away from her mother.

I see no reason why you should go into detail as to why you were classified 4-F. It would be entirely correct to say you were rejected because of an emotional disturbance.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 18 and I know what I want, I want to go steady with Craig but my parents are against it. They think Craig is a prince of a fellow and would be pleased if we married — someday — but I can't go steady with anybody and that's final. I love Craig and he loves me. He doesn't want to date anyone else and neither do I. We can't marry for at least another four years. He is 19 and has four years of college ahead of him.

Why should I be forced to date others when I don't want to? My parents are not the kind you can talk to, I mean really talk. I can't stand the not being able to communicate with them about this. Will you help? —B. A. J.

Dear B. A. J.: Sorry, but I'm against going steady, even with a prince of a fellow. Surely there are two or three other fellows in the world you can tolerate.

Dating others will keep the relationship with numero uno in perspective. When you do finally marry Craig (if you do) you won't feel you've already been married half your life.

Dear Ann: I moved to the west coast two years ago. Soon after I arrived I received my orders from the selective service board to report for the armed forces physical examination. I was 20 years of age at the time.

I decided to answer all the questions honestly. In reference to homosexual tendencies I checked the block admitting that I am a homosexual.

I was rejected and classified 4-F. Now as I approach my 23rd birthday more and more people inquire as to why I have not been drafted. Among those most persistent in their questioning is my mother.

How shall I explain to her and to others that I will never be drafted? Considering the attitude of our society toward homosexuality I would be doing myself more harm than good by admitting it.

Can you advise me, or do your editors consider this subject taboo? —ANSWERED

TRUTHFULLY

Dear Answered: I have dealt with the problem of homosexuality in print on previous occasions. My column appears in 570 papers. So far as I know, only two papers refused to print the letters.

Mrs. Donald J. Bryson

Theresa Schroeder And Donald Bryson Wed

Theresa Schroeder became Mrs. Donald J. Bryson in a double ring ceremony during a Nuptial High Mass Saturday, Nov. 28, at 10 a. m. at Assumption B. V. M. Catholic Church in Pulaski, Wis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Schroeder Sr., Pulaski. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Bryson, Powers. Leah Radtke, Milwaukee, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Delores Banaszynski and Patricia Gwidt, both of Pulaski. Best man was Clement Veaser, Ubyly, Mich. Llewellyn Veaser, Powers, and Richard Schroeder, Hilbert, Wis., the bride's brother, were attendants. Performing ushering duties were Raymond Sch-roeder and Stanley Schroeder Jr. The bride chose a full-skirted gown, with long tapered sleeves of peau taffeta detailed with a back bow and chapel length train. A French imported silk rose accented at the back with another rose held her four-tier nylon bouffant veil. She carried a spray arrangement of crystal mum florets with trailing ivy, centered with a hybrid white orchid.

The three attendants wore identical emerald green velvet floor length sheaths featuring long tapered sleeves, scoop necklines, and satin narrow sashes with bows at the back waistline. Their headpieces were matching green velvet roses with two-tier veils. Their accessories were dyed to match. Their bouquets were cascades of yellow carnations and green lemon foliage with a large yellow chrysanthemum.

The bride's mother wore a raspberry red three-piece knit suit with complementing accessories. A corsage of white mum florets and American Beauty roses completed her costume. A two-piece blue-green brocade dress with matching accessories was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Her corsage was white mum florets and pink roses.

The wedding reception was held at the parish hall for 500 guests attending from Carney, Escanaba, Nadeau, Powers, Spalding, and Wilson, Chicago, Green Bay, Menasha, Milwaukee and Pulaski.

The bride is a graduate of Pulaski High School and is employed at the school office as secretary. The bridegroom was graduated from Holy Name High School, Escanaba, and received his B. A. degree from Northern Michigan University, Marquette. He currently is teaching in the Pulaski School System.

The couple will reside at 254 Summit St., Pulaski.

Calvary Christmas Tea Monday Night

Plans have been completed for the annual Christmas tea of the women of the Calvary Baptist Church. The festive event will take place Monday, Dec. 7 at 8 p. m.

The program this year features a unique presentation entitled, "Behind the Curtain" and is the story of a number of people in Communist East Germany. Taking the part of three German women are Mrs. Ernest Erickson, Mrs. Carl Mattson and Mrs. Henry DeGeest. The John Stiglitz family portrays a German family of earlier years with Lorna King as the grandmother. Pastor Donald Wolf takes the part of a Communist guard. The narration is done by Mrs. Robert Melchoir.

Special music will include a solo by Florence Poquette and a trio number by Miss Poquette, Mrs. Melchoir and Mrs. Martin Strolle. Mrs. Melchoir and Miss King also will have musical solo parts during the presentation.

Accutron is a Bulova development.

ACCUTRON "214"
Handsome stainless steel case, hand-applied hour markers, alligator strap. Waterproof*, shock-protected. $125.00

The right time of day.

Even the most expensive watch can't keep time as precisely as Accutron. That's because all the mechanical parts that make a conventional watch fast or slow have been left out of it. The Accutron movement is electronic. It's powered by a battery that keeps a tiny tuning fork vibrating 360 times a second, and it comes with the first guarantee of accuracy ever given. (You might like to know that the U.S. uses Accutron movements in satellites and issued them to all X-15 pilots.) You can't give a man a more perfect gift of time.

Pearl Shiner Circle of the First Baptist Church meets with the Alice Miller-Ida MacLaum Circle Thursday, Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the Church. There will be a special Christmas program.

State Police report John Joseph Doran, 70, of Germfask was struck by an auto in an accident Monday at 6:30 p.m., but apparently was not seriously injured. The auto was operated by Robert Loudenslager, 52, of Houghton Lake, who reported the accident to Manistique State Police. Manistique State Police investigated. Officers said Doran walked from a building into the highway, in the path of the car traveling north on M77 in Germfask.

Fines of $15 and costs of $4.30 were assessed in Justice Court to Terry L. Smith, 18, and George Perry, 18, of Manistique on simple larceny charges, to which they pleaded guilty. The charge involved tractor tools taken from a road cutting site of Paul Rhoads of Cooks, south of Boursaw Creek, where a road is being cut to Lake Michigan.

GLADSTONE

Death Takes Mrs. Snowaert

Mrs. Frank Snowaert, 74, a resident of Gladstone since her childhood, died at 5:45 a.m. today at Pine Haven Rest Home where she had been a patient since July. She had been in failing health for several months.

Mrs. Snowaert was born Rose Broeckaert on Nov. 6, 1890 in Marquette and came to Gladstone with her family when she was eight years old. Her husband, Frank, whom she married 56 years ago, preceded her in death in 1958.

She was a member of All Saints Church.

Survivors include four daughters, Mary Nelson of 510 S. 4th St., Gladstone, where Mrs. Snowaert made her home prior to taking residence at Pine Haven, Mrs. Donald (Rose) Chase, Mrs. Harold (Elizabeth) Ebbeson and Mrs. John (Joyce) Closs, all of Gladstone, four sons, Donald of Detroit, and Jacob, Paul and Charles of Gladstone, 23 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Also surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Henry Cole of Gladstone, Mrs. Henry Frost of Escanaba, Mrs. Stanley Bullen of Lansing, Mrs. Lydia Drumm of California, and Mrs. Phillip VanLandschoot of Munising, and one brother, John Broeckaert of Gladstone.

Friends may call at the Skradski Funeral Home after 2 p.m. Sunday. The rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Sunday. Funeral services will be held at the Funeral Home at 9 a.m. Monday with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Matt LaViolette officiating. Burial will be in Fernwood Cemetery.

Cub Pack Meets

Cub Scout Pack 471 will hold their regular meeting at the High School Gym at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 12. The Webelos den, under the direction of their leader, Gene Kee, will present the flag in the opening ceremony.

Skits will be presented by dtns 8 and 9 under the direction of den mothers Mrs. Alex Hess and Mrs. Werner Isaacson. Earned awards will be presented to the Cub Scouts at this meeting.

Events being planned for the coming months include the Pinewood Derby in January and the play-off of the checker tournament now being conducted in the individual dens. These awards will be presented at the annual Blue and Gold Banquet which will be held in February.

Obituary

GERALD BROEDERS

Funeral services for Gerald Broeders were held at 9 a.m. today at All Saints Church with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Matt LaViolette officiating. Burial was in Foster City Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers from the Holy Name Society were Fred Schram, Romeo Thivierge, J. F. Gnat, Adolore Patient, W. A. Moore and James Sinclair. Active pallbearers were six grandsons, Clyde Gasperich, Clark, John, Marvin, Sydney Jr., and Sam Lucas.

Major battles were fought at Balaklava and Sevastopol during the Crimean War.

Hunters Help Buck Escape

The other side of the coin was shown by three carloads of deer hunters who helped an exhausted buck escape in the woods after swimming ashore beside U. S. 2 near Manistique.

Henry Tornga of downstate Byron Center tells the story:

"My brother Dick and I were returning from deer hunting in the Upper Peninsula when we saw a spot bobbing in the waves of Lake Michigan where U. S. skirts the lake near Manistique. We stopped to watch and soon made it out as an antlered buck.

"About that time a second carload of hunters stopped and one of them asked if we were going to shoot that buck. When I explained we couldn't find the shells, they asked if they might shoot it and, of course, I could hardly say no. Then a third car pulled up and these hunters hollered at us to 'Put it in the barn and it'll be easier to shoot!' but none of us intended to shoot the buck on the beach.

"However, when the buck pulled itself up on the little icebergs on the beach, it just lay there and we could see it was too exhausted to run.

"So we picked him up again and carried him across the highway into the pines, stood him on his feet and slapped him into motion.

"We don't know where he came from or where he went, but we all hope nobody got him this season."

Fire Damages Mill's Tank

Firemen were called Thursday afternoon to Manistique Pulp and Paper Co., when sparks from a welder ignited tar used in constructing a new groundwood storage tank. Firemen worked at an hour to bring the blaze under control. Coating on half the surface of the tank was burned.

EX-ESKIMO — Ken Seibert, 6 foot 7 inch freshman at Michigan Tech, was one of three Huskies to score in double figures in the season opener at St. Norbert College this week. . . Michigan Tech bowed, 90-68. . . Seibert contributed five field goals and three free throws for 13 points. . . John Olson, another former Esky athlete, tossed in four points in the losing cause.

WILDCATS — Four former Upper Peninsula high school cage stars will make their home debut as members of Northern Michigan University's basketball squad this afternoon when Coach Stan Albeck's Wildcats host Wisconsin State University of Oshkosh at the NMU fieldhouse. . . Two of the players, Con Zagodzinski of Holy Name and Bill Koski of Champion, are starters and Bruce Forstrom of Marquette and Les Coduti of Ishpeming are expected to see early action.

HORNETS — The Soo Tech Hornets, winner of seven straight starts this season, have hit on 46 percent of their field goal attempts. . . Coach Jack Brighton's cagers have averaged 91.8 points per game. . . Pat Grobleau, Nahma freshman on the team, has averaged 15 points and 12 rebounds per game.

RUNNER — Among the major letter winners in cross country at Augustana College in Rock Island, Ill., this fall was Elaine Dickson, former runner for Coach Henry Wyllie at Escanaba High School. . . Dickson is a freshman.

IMPROVEMENT — The Munising Mustangs, who play here against Escanaba tonight, needed only two weeks of the current cage season to better their record for the entire 1963-64 campaign. . . Munising won only once in 16 starts last season and the Mustangs surprised everyone by copping their first two games this season.

TRANSFER — Rock's loss is Chassell's gain. . . Dave Vertanen leading scorer on the Rock Little Giant basketball team as a sophomore last year, is now a student at Chassell and a member of the Panther cage squad. . . After missing a game against Michigamme because of an injury, Vertanen returned to action this week and scored 17 points as Chassell whipped Amasa, 94-40. . . Amasa played without high scoring Jerry Hautula, who is out for the season.

DOWNFALL — Coach Fritz Wilson's Houghton Gremlins bowed to Hancock, 57-28, in their latest start, making it three straight setbacks this season. . . That's a jolt for Houghton fans who are used to seeing their team turn in winning seasons with monotonous regularity. . . In the last three regular campaigns the Gremlins have won 7 of 48 starts. . . Pacing Hancock to the lopsided triumph over Houghton this week was big Pete Wickley with 22 points.

Garden Notches Third Victory

GARDEN—The Garden Jets fought off a stubborn Cooks outfit here Friday to score a 78-70 victory, their third straight this season.

A steady parade to the free throw line provided Garden with its narrow margin of victory. The Jets were outscored by five field goals, 31 to 26, but made the most of 36 opportunities from the line. They canned 26 of the gift tosses. Cooks had only 12 chances and made 8 of them.

The smaller Cooks cagers dogged the Jets constantly and applied a skin-tight press to overcome their lack of height. It kept the Clippers within shooting distance of the Jets, but the style took its toll in fouls and Cooks lost two players while three others had four personal.

Barry Rochefort of Garden and Phil Hartman of Cooks hooked up in a torrid scoring duel. Rochefort scored 40 points on 14 field goals and 12 of 13 free throws. Hartman tossed in 17 field goals and added three gift tosses for 37 points.

Cooks won the jayvee game, 55-26.

Palmer Keeps Hawaiian Lead

KAANAPALI, Maui, Hawaii (AP)—The United States and South Africa remained in a deadlock going into Saturday's third round of the Canada Cup golf matches, with their team leaders, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player one-two in the struggle for individual honors.

Today the U.S. twosome, Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, met England's Peter Alliss and Bernard Hunt, and Player and his partner, Denis Hutchinson, were paired with Mexico's Margarito Martinez and Juan Neri.

Referring to Palmer's pro-amateur score of 65 Wednesday, Nicklaus cracked:

"Sixty-five, 66 and 67, that's pretty good. But Arnie, you're going the wrong way."

"I'll start back the other way," Palmer promised.

Trailing the U.S. and South Africa in third place for the Canada Cup was Argentina, 279, and tied at 287 were Hawaii and Spain.

Runners-up in order included England, 288; Belgium, 289; Japan, 291; Scotland and the Philippines, 295; New Zealand 296, and Australia, 299.

Nicklaus, after a first round 72, improved with a 69 for 141. Trailing Palmer and Player in individual play were Hawaii's Ted Makalela, 137; Hutchinson and Leopoldo Ruiz, Argentina, 139; Argentina's Roberto Vicen-20, 149; and Nicklaus and Flory Van Donck, Belgium, 141.

China's Chen Ching Po, with a first round 68, skidded to 76 for 144.

Manistique Downs Gladstone Braves

GLADSTONE — Coach Rudie Brandstrom's Manistique Emeralds stung the Gladstone Braves 24-12 in the first period and coasted home with a 79-55 Great Lakes Conference triumph Friday night.

The decision was Manistique's second in the conference against one setback. The defeat was the third straight for Coach Bill Wood's cagers.

Gladstone took a 4-3 lead in the early going but it was strictly a temporary pleasure. The Emeralds took command of the boards, found the firing range and scored 14 straight points. They led 42-29 at the half and the Braves never retreated.

Eric Blomquist paced Manistique's big front line trio with an excellent rebounding performance. He also took individual scoring honors for the night with 23 points on eight field goals and seven free throws. Tom Brawley chipped in 18 points, Jon Cameron 13 and Darryl Carlson 11 for the winners.

Bruce Hawkinson led the Braves in scoring with 16 points before fouling out of action early in the third quarter. Ricky Ebbesen produced 15 points for the only other Brave in double figures.

The Emeralds had a hot hand from the floor and the foul line. They canned 29 of 69 field goal attempts for 42 percent and pumped in 21 of 32 from the line.

The Braves had trouble hitting the hoop and settled for 23 of 80 shots from the field and 9 of 22 from the charity line.

Enroute to his 23 point total, Blomquist scored 16 points in the first half. Both teams made extensive use of their reserves in the second half of the contest.

Manistique also won the jayvee preliminary game.

String Snapped By Rapid River

RAPID RIVER—Coach Bill McGovern and his Rapid River Rockets shook an unpleasant habit here Friday night when they spilled Champion 47-19 in a non-league contest.

The Rockets had dropped their first two starts of the season under new coach McGovern, losing both by the margin of a single field goal in the final seconds of action.

It was a completely different story last night as the Rockets zoomed to a 15-9 lead in the first period, spread the margin to 42-19 at the half and coasted home with reserves playing out most of the second half.

Doug Moss was the individual scoring leader for the night with 26 points while Bob Anderson reached 10 for the Rockets. Waisanen topped the Champion output with 13.

Rapid River made a clean sweep of it by winning the jayvee game, 36-26.

Redskins Top Felch, 71-66

FELCH—The Hermansville Redskins cleared a tough hurdle in Little Seven Conference action here last night, fighting off a late rally to down the Felch Foresters 71-66.

With his bench coming through in the clutch, Coach Don Hill's Redskins moved out to a 59-43 advantage entering the final quarter.

Felch scrambled back to outscore Hermansville 23-12 in the stretch, but the rally fell short.

Ron Povolo set the scoring pace for Hermansville with 31 points and Doug LaCourseier canned 18. Gary Blomquist topped Felch with 18.

The Redskins lost Dan Vincent with an ankle injury in the second period.

Felch won the jayvee game, 60-38.

Weather Hits Prep Schedule

By The Associated Press

Icy roads and heavy snows forced postponement of some prep basketball games Friday night. But freezing temperatures outside didn't stop some hot shooting inside.

Detroit Northwestern trounced Detroit Cooley 106-44. Edmore blasted Vestaburg 113-37 and Inkster Cherry Hill thumped Huron 104-46 in games which saw the winners break the century mark.

Guard Dave Fisher tossed in 30 points as Trenton upset Dearborn 66-59 in one of the Detroit area's top attractions. In another, defending Class C state champion Grosse Pointe St. Paul waltzed to a 60-41 verdict over Roseville Sacred Heart.

Perry, a former power in the Lansing area, made coach Bob Sheehan's debut a success with a 58-54 triumph over Laingsburg. Sheehan was forced to look for a new job after Port Huron St. Stephen closed its doors last summer.

Other high scoring, but slightly closer, games saw Kent City defeat Newaygo 98-88 and Reeset outlast Kingston 93-91.

Jackson downed Adrian 42-32 in one of the lower scoring contests of the night.

Other Class A headliners saw Alpena trumphant Flint Beecher 67-58. Ann Arbor beat Dearborn Edsel Ford 71-58. Lansing Sexton disposed of Jackson Parkside, 77-53, and Pontiac Central tripped by City Central 64-53.

City League Games Listed

The City League basketball schedule will open with three games at the Junior High gym Monday night, it was announced today by Bob Jensen.

Comets Zoom Past Nahma

NAHMA — The Trenary Comets bounced back from their one-point setback to Ebena by defeating Nahma 86-46 in Central League action here Friday night.

Trenary edged in front, 16-14, in the first quarter and increased the lead to 32-23 at the halftime before breaking the game wide open with a 30 point explosion in the third period.

Gary Flynn scored consistently with driving layups in the first half and Coach Steve Ellis' patented fast break attack began clicking in the second half.

Flynn and Lusardi, classy Trenary guards, combined for 46 points. Don Johnson led Nahma with 16 and Terry Lar-scheid added 11.

The Comets scored on 38 of 76 shots from the field and the Arrows hit 20 of 47.

The Nahma jayvees won the preliminary, 31-28.

Mr. Versatile Has Chance At Grid Records

By The Associated Press

Gino Cappelletti, Mr. Versatile of the Boston Patriots, has an excellent chance at two important individual records and his teammates have an outside shot at a second straight divisional title as the American Football League season goes into the windup stages.

The Patriots, with only two games left, take a 9-2-1 record to Kansas City for one of the three league games scheduled Sunday. Boston desperately needs a victory — and help — in its attempt to overtake front-running Buffalo.

The mighty Bills, 10-1, have three games remaining, including Sunday's match with the Raiders at Oakland, New York 5-5-1, is at San Diego, 7-3-1, is the only other game scheduled. Denver and Houston are idle.

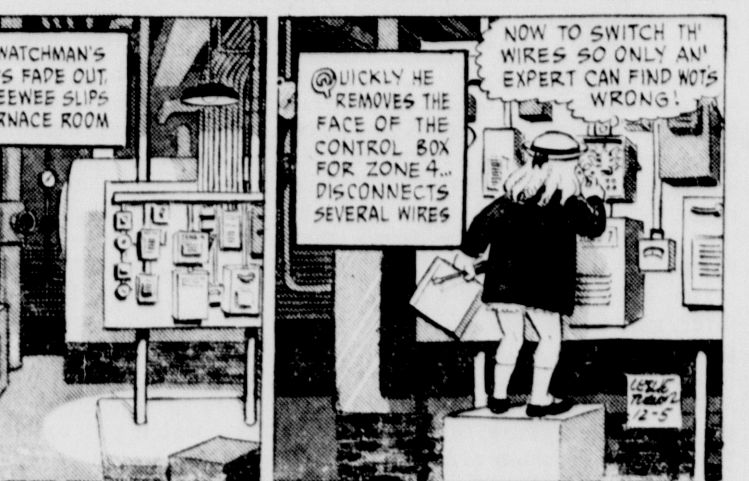

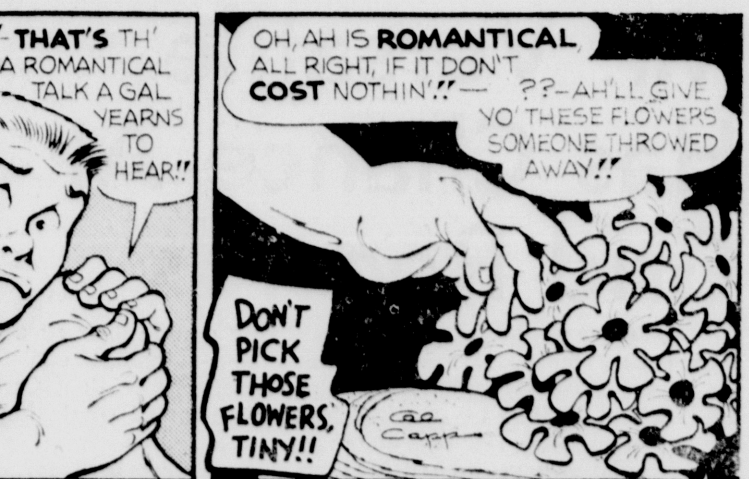

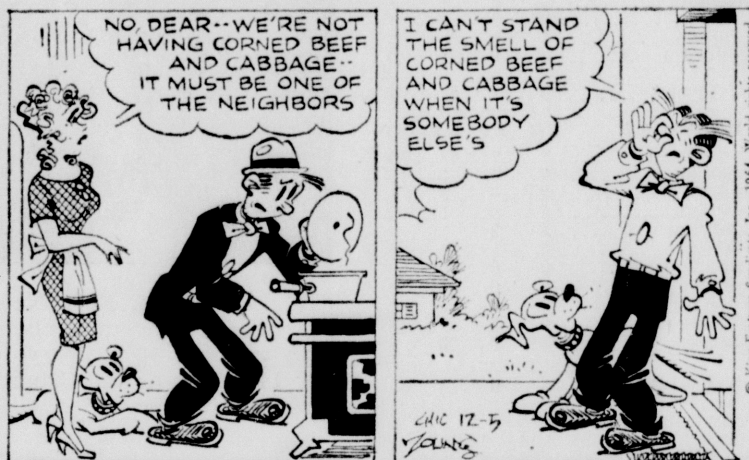

In the National Football League, Green Bay is at Chicago in a Saturday game, while the Sunday schedule has Cleveland at St. Louis, Minnesota at New York, Los Angeles at San Francisco, Detroit at Baltimore, Pittsburgh at Washington and Dallas at Philadelphia.

The Patriots get lots of help from Cappelletti, but need some from an outside source if they're to win their second straight Eastern Division title. Even if they win their two remaining games — including the regular season finale with Buffalo — someone else must at least tie the Bills to force a playoff game.

JIM MICHEAU, Holy Name's 6 foot 2 inch senior forward, goes up for a shot while two Stephenson players apply a tight defensive effort. For the Eagles, No. 35 is Paul Dougovita and No. 43 is Jerry Hittman. Miche

Bavasi said the addition of the 25-year-old Osteen, who won 15 and lost 13 for the ninth-place Senators, gives the Dodgers the best four-man starting staff in baseball.

"Where will you find a starting staff better than Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale, Johnny Podres and Osteen?" he asked.

By The Associated Press Harry Combes, Illinois basketball coach, sure has the knack of making his Fighting Illini ruin winning streaks. Sev-	Michigan in The Associated Press preseason poll, trailed 52-38 at halftime. The closest they got in the second half was 11 points at 80-69.

May, a first baseman, and Rudy May, a left-handed pitcher.

Of the 10 deals consummated since Sunday, the Phillies were involved in four. Earlier they acquired first baseman Dick Stuart from Eoston for southpaw Dennis Bennett, right-handed pitcher Ray Herbert and first baseman Jeff Long from the Chicago White Sox for outfielder Danny Cater and shortstop Del Elia, and sold first baseman Vic Power back to the Angels.

"We accomplished what we were after," said Philly Manager Gene Mauch. "We needed to shore up our pitching and right-handed power hitting. I know we are stronger now than we were at any time last season."

The six-player transaction with the Dodgers was the Senators' second major trade. In the first they got first baseman Bob Chance and infielder-outfielder Woodie Held for outfielder Chuck Hinton.

"I believe we now have as en years ago his boys shattered the record 60 - game winning streak of the San Francisco Dons.

The Illini did it again Friday night, snapping the 30-game winning streak of UCLA, the national collegiate champions. They did it decisively, 10-83, shooting a torrid .605 from the field.

"We expect to have a good team," Combes said before the game. That appeared an understatement judging from the way Skip Thoren, Bill McKeown, Bogie Redmond and Don Freeman teamed together as they dunked 46 of 76 field goal attempts for an Illini record. The four combined for 73 points with Thoren getting 20, McKeown 19 and Redmond and Freeman 17 each.

Gail Goodrich threw in 25 points for UCLA, but the Bruins couldn't overcome the hot shooting of the Illini on their home court at Champaign, Ill.

The Bruins, ranked second to Michigan in the Associated Press preseason poll, trailed 52-38 at halftime. The closest they got in the second half was 11 points at 80-69.

Minnesota and Kentucky, each of which just missed making the AP preseason Top Ten, chalked up victories in other major games. Louis Hudson threw in 26 points as the Gophers beat Drake 67-60 and snapped the Bulldogs' 18-game home court winning streak.

Kentucky came from behind for an 85-77 triumph over Iowa. Coach Adolph Rupp's touted Little Kids, Randy Embry and Louie Dampier, each scored three field goals in the closing surge that won for the Wildcats.

A free-for-all in the last minute of the Denver-Colorado game marked the opening of the Mile High Classic tourney at Denver. Players on both teams piled onto the floor when Colorado's Pat Frink and Denver's Don Slys tangled with 43 seconds left in Denver's 84-73 victory.

Colorado State U. edged the Air Force 68-66 in overtime in the other first round game for the right to play Denver in the

By The Associated Press
Quick now, which team in the National Football League has completed the most passes this season? The Baltimore Colts? Washington Redskins? Philadelphia Eagles?

No, of course not. It's those Browns beating Philadelphia 24 with Jim Brown adding yards to his rushing total of 288 yards, and the Cards coming from behind for a 21-20 ed over Pittsburgh. The Cards a Browns tied 33-33 in their first meeting this year.

free-wheeling, wide-open, helter-skelter Chicago Bears, who had to abandon their traditional grind-em-out, close-to-the-vest style of play when it all backfired in their dismal beginning this season.

So they started throwing, now have won three straight, have a 5-7 record and a shot at second place in the West, and, of all things, a flock of passing records to take today into their test with the Green Bay Packers.

That sole Saturday game, a nationally televised contest, serves as the preview to Sunday's clash between the Cleveland Browns and St. Louis Cardinals in their struggle for first place in the East.

Other NFL games Sunday are Minnesota at New York, Los Angeles at San Francisco, Detroit at Baltimore, Pittsburgh at Washington and Dallas at Philadelphia.

In the American League, Boston is at Kansas City, New York at San Diego and Buffalo at Oakland, all in Sunday games. Denver and Houston are idle.

The big one is the Browns-Cards battle at St. Louis with Cleveland, 9-2-1, needing only a tie to clinch its first division title since 1957. Should St. Louis, 3-3-2, win, however, the struggle would go down to the last week of the season.

Both teams won last week, the

The Bears are two games under .500 but still have a shot at the No. 2 position and a place in the Playoff Bowl game between the runners-up in each division. Green Bay, 7-5 and second place in the West, also is shooting for a spot in the Playoff Bowl and won the first game with Chicago this season 23-12. Neither the Packers nor the Bears have a chance at the top spot, however. Baltimore already has clinched.

Aside from the Packers and Bears, three other Western teams have a chance for second place — Minnesota, 6-5-1, Detroit, 5-5-2, and Los Angeles, 5-6-1.

Of the three, Detroit would appear to have the toughest assignment, taking on the mighty Colts at Baltimore. Colt Coach Don Shula holds three straight victories over the Lions, including 34-0 earlier this season, and the Colts are romping along on an 11-game winning string.

Minnesota is favored over New York, winner of only two games this season, in those two teams' first ever regular season game, while Los Angeles is slightly favored over the 49ers.

Little but local pride and prestige is at stake in the Pittsburgh and Washington and Dallas at Philadelphia affairs, since all are out of contention.

the Steel Bowl, opened at Pittsburgh with Miami, Fla., defeating Duquesne 99-95 and Pitt downing Virginia Tech 74-69. Rick Barry scored 40 points for the Hurricanes who will play Pitt in the final tonight. Willie Somerset got 37 for the Dukes.

The lights went out at half-time at Norman, Okla. After a wait of one hour and 25 minutes, the electrical power was restored and Seattle went on to defeat Oklahoma 98-81.

Brigham Young, favored to win the Western Athletic Conference, opened its season impressively with a 96-70 romp against Oregon behind John Fairchild's 30 points.

Gary Gray's basket with four seconds left gave Oklahoma City a 78-76 victory over Centenary. Wayne Estes' 33 points plus four free throws by Hal Hale that broke an 82-82 tie, sparked Utah State to an 88-84 triumph over Butler. Eddie Jackson led Bradley to an overtime 75-72 victory over North Dakota. Jackson scored 32 points, including two free throws that tied the regulation game at 69-69.

Dick Moreshead's hook shot with 17 seconds on the clock gave Boston University a 62-61 squeaker over Rutgers. Notre Dame set a school record by overwhelming Ball State 116-82 and Creighton downed Long Beach State 88-80 despite 35 points for the losers by John Rambo, the Olympic high jumper.

When does a 75-39 lead over the Boston Celtics turn out to be bad luck? When you're the led Cincinnati past 104-90 and Philadelphia to overcome Detroit bad break? When you're the San Francisco Warriors and the loss of Wilt Chamberlain has just robbed you of the most gratifying moment in a frustrating season.

The Warriors trounced the National Basketball Association champions 112-85 Friday night at San Francisco but they may have paid a stiff price. With that 38-point bulge showing on the scoreboard in the third period, Chamberlain, who had completely outplayed the Celtics' Bill Russell, suffered a broken nose in a scramble under the backboard.

The extent of Wilt's injury was unknown but it took much of the lustre from the Warriors' one-sided victory. They led 31-16 after the first quarter, 62-31 at intermission and showed no signs of letting up until Chamberlain was hurt. Only a 33-point final quarter saved the Celtics from further humiliation.

Elsewhere, Bailey Howell's basket with 13 seconds left gave Baltimore a 108-106 decision over St. Louis; Wayne Embury

Before his injury, Russell scored 24 points, down 20 rebounds and Russell to six points. Warriors hit for double Tom Meschery's 20th. Rookie Mel Daniels, who had 20 points, was eased by Celtics, whose East lead dwindled to 31.

Oscar Robertson, a native scorer with 33 points, finished with 21 rebounds and spent one-half rallying.

Connie Dickerson, field goals and Philadelphia two in Philadelphia early in the third quarter wiped out a four-point lead. The Pistons climbed in two points before Larry Costello and the 76ers with 25 points respectively, triggered a six-point burst.

The loss dropped the record to 6-7 under Dave Debussche, who lost Hal Greer late in the half when he dislocated his right knee.

CHICAGO (AP) — Northern Michigan University may become Michigan's second member of the five-school Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC) in 1965.

NU Athletic Director F. (Frosty) Ferzacca and faculty adviser Dr. Henry Heinomä applied Friday to the IAC for membership at the league's winter meeting.

Central Michigan University, Illinois State, Eastern Illinois, Northern Illinois and Western Illinois comprise the IAC.

Action on possible admission of Northern Michigan probably will be taken at the IAC's spring meeting in May, following a report of a committee which is to inspect the NMU campus at Marquette. This visit is to be made by the IAC membership committee composed of Lester Serier of Central Michigan, Burton O'Connor of Illinois State and chairman Fred R. of Northern Illinois.

Three years ago, Eastern Michigan left the IAC to join the President's Athletic Conference.

Daniel P. Rose, CMU athletics director, was elected IAC vice president Friday. Northern Illinois Athletic Director George Evans was elected president.

Birthday Party
Mrs. Raymond Maki was honored with a surprise party at her home Saturday evening. A large pink, green and white birthday cake centered the lunch table. She received gifts and purse of money. A social evening followed. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beach and family and Mrs. S. Beach, all of Pontiac, Mrs. Charles Norden, Detroit, and many local friends and relatives.

Mr. Beach and Mr. Miller also did some hunting in the Rock area.

Mrs. Lauri Ranta and Mrs. Ahti Waak attended the Home Extension Christmas tea in Escanaba Tuesday.

Ingrid Tervonen gave a lesson in teenage nutrition and salads Monday at Rock for the Home Extension group.

Math Course

MARQUETTE — A National Science Foundation grant of $30,650 has been awarded to Northern Michigan University to conduct a summer institute for secondary school teachers of mathematics.

The six-week course will be offered on Northern's campus from June 21 to July 31 with six hours of graduate credit. Open to 30 secondary school mathematics teachers, the course will emphasize geometry from an advanced standpoint.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

1. Card of Thanks

Provo

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends, neighbors and relatives also to the teachers and Sisters of Saint Joseph School for their acts of kindness in the recent death of our brother and nephew, Frederick Provo. Especially do we thank the Frs. Norbert Freiburger, Jordan Telles and Farrell Byers for their words of comfort which helped to lighten our burden of sorrow, the pallbearers, those who loaned cars and the many friends who sent floral and spiritual bouquets. We thank you all.

We, the Township Board of the Township of Escanaba, County of Delta, State of Michigan, hereby resolve that it shall be unlawful to establish, operate or maintain a dumping ground for disposal of garbage or any other junk material without first making proper application to the Township Board. The application must state the exact description of the area to be used, and what method of keeping the area maintained. The Township has sole authority to approve said application.

Signed — December 2, 1964
Effective December 2, 1964
Penalty: $145-453

Any violation of said ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, or by imprisonment in the County Jail not to exceed ninety (90) days or both such fines and imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

16703 — Dec. 5

ORDINANCE NO. 448
AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND "ORDINANCE NO. 65 ENTITLED 'AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE AND RESTRICT THE LOCATION OF TRADING AND INDUSTRIES AND THE LOCATION OF BUILDINGS DETACHED FROM THE MAIN STREET TO REGULATE AND DETERMINE THE AREA OF YARDS, COURTS AND OTHER OPEN SPACES, TO LIMIT AND RESTRICT THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF FAMILIES WHICH MAY BE HOUSED IN BUILDINGS, HEREINAFTER ERECTED OR STRUCTURALLY ALTERED, AND FOR SAID PURPOSES TO DIVIDE THE CITY INTO DISTRICTS, TO PROVIDE A METHOD OF ADMINISTRATION, AND TO PRESCRIBE THE PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF ITS PROVISIONS, AND ANY AMENDMENTS THERETO."

CHAPTER I.
SECTIONS AMENDED
Section 101. The Zoning Map referred to in Section 11-A shall be amended as follows:

Lot 11, of Block 5, of City Center Addition No. 2, to the City of Escanaba shall be changed from Residence B Zone to Commercial Zone.

CHAPTER II.
SAVINGS CLAUSE
Section 201. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional or unlawful, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses and phrases are declared unconstitutional or unlawful.

CHAPTER III.
EFFECTIVE DATE
Section 401. This ordinance shall become effective ten (10) days after its adoption and publication. It shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the City Council of the City of Escanaba, Michigan, and hereby certifies that the above and foregoing ordinance was duly passed and adopted at a meeting of the city council held on December 2, 1964.

Indian Friends Remembered By Young People

Young people of the Detroit area who last year summer joined with Indians of the Hannaville community near Wilson in a work project there did not forget their friends when they had the opportunity to send gifts that were distributed to the Indian families today.

The opportunity was the visit of members of Gov. George Romney's Indian Affairs Commission to Hannaville on a tour of inspection that continued into this afternoon.

"The American Indian Foundation sent a carload of presents for the Indians," said Dr. Lewis Beeson, Lansing, secretary of the Commission. "They are from the Episcopal Church group that last summer sent its young people to Hannaville on a work project."

Dr. Beeson said that the members of the Michigan Indian Affairs Commission visiting Hannaville today included the Rev. William Shank, Dr. and Mrs. William Butt, Detroit; John Winchester of Belview near Dearborn; Mrs. Hanna Aitkens, Detroit; and Mrs. Helene Welsh of L'Anse.

Wintertime Visit
The Rev. Shank, Episcopal priest and executive director of the American Indian Foundation, and the group of young people of the Detroit area (they were joined here by three Escanaba youth) spent several weeks at Hannaville repairing and restoring the Indians' community building and some of the homes.

There are about 140 Indians in 26 families at Hannaville, located in the Wilson-Bark River-Harris area of Menominee and Delta Counties.

Dr. Beeson said the visit of the Indian Affairs Commission members at this season of the year is primarily for the purpose of learning first-hand the wintertime problems of the inhabitants.

Increasing attention to the plight of the people of the Hannaville community is being given by citizens of the area. There have been recent meetings at which the possibility of assistance under the Economic Opportunity Act was explored, and the problems of the community reviewed.

Seek Solution
Community Action committees have been named at a meeting in the Bark River-Harris school conducted by Joseph Sagataw, Hannaville tribal chairman.

The Michigan Indian Affairs Commission was appointed by Gov. Romney last spring and its objectives are to determine the problems of the state's Indian residents, list those problems, give them priority and propose solutions.

Dr. Beeson said that meetings of the Commission have been held in most of Michigan's Indian communities and that further visits are contemplated. The group plans to visit the Indian community at Nahma in Delta County later today, after a tour of Hannaville that began about 10 a. m.

Hannaville and Watersmeet communities, lacking electric power, water and sanitation facilities, are critically in need of solutions to their problems, Dr. Beeson said.

Delinquent Tax Collections Hit $7,615 In Nov.

The City of Escanaba received $515, Gladstone, $946, and the Village of Garden $5.

Gladstone News Police Break Crime Spree

A trail of crime across Michigan and Wisconsin was uncovered Friday by State Police after arrest of two Delta County men on routine traffic violations.

Troopers said today that Terrance D. Deloughary, 21, of Rte. 2, Bark River, and Melvin T. Taft, 22, of Rapid River were wanted in Marinette County and Iron County on breaking and entering warrants.

They were lodged in the Delta County jail with 20 day sentences after pleading guilty to traffic charges of speeding and improper registration plates on their car when arraigned before Justice Ross Davis.

Police said they were stopped Friday on Rd. 412 in Danforth. A loaded revolver and a new rifle were found in the car, police said.

Investigation revealed that the rifle had been stolen in a breaking and entering on Dec. 1 from a Gambles store in Wausaukee, Wis. Police said it was one of a series of men allegedly committed in the past three weeks.

Taft told police that he had gone with Deloughary to Crystal Falls on Nov. 16, entering four private garages and taking guns, clothing, checks from a now defunct business and identification from automobile glove compartments.

Two days later they drove to Milwaukee where they pawned the stolen goods in several shops before continuing to Chicago in a rented car. Police said they rented another car in Chicago and cashed several forged checks before traveling to Detroit where three or four more checks were cashed.

The pair then returned to Delta County, leaving on Dec. 1 for Wausaukee, Wis., where they entered the Gambles store, taking a television set, a record player, the rifle, several watches, electric razors and hunting knives, police said.

Taft told troopers that the television set and record player had been pawned in Milwaukee.

Police said Taft also admitted that the pair broke into a private garage in Manistique and took a chain saw.

State police are continuing investigation of the case.

Briefly Told

St. Elizabeth's Altar Guild of Trinity Episcopal Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Adams, 807 Michigan Ave., at 8 p.m. Monday. Mrs. H. J. Miller will be co-hostess.

The Women's Smear League will meet Dec. 14, instead of Dec. 7, at Kipling Town Hall.

A regular meeting of the Lite Lites Tops Club will be held Monday evening at the Dehlin Clinic. Members are asked to come early because election of officers will be held promptly at 7 p.m.

State Police of the Gladstone Post issued traffic tickets to James C. Rivard, Crystal Falls, for speeding; James Feak, Rte. 1, Escanaba, for exceeding truck speed; William L. Phanderf, Parkville, Mich., for speeding; and William J. Foster, Kipling, for speeding.

Racine Minister Comes To Church At Bark River

The Rev. Wayne A. Monske of Racine, Wis., has accepted a call to serve as pastor of Salem Lutheran Church in Bark River. It was announced today.

He will assume his term of service Jan. 15.

The Rev. Erlend Carlson of Christ the King, Escanaba, will continue to serve the congregation as vice-pastor until the arrival of Pastor Monske.

Aged Woman Badly Burned

An elderly Escanaba woman was severely burned over most of her body in an accident in the basement of her home today.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stark, 81, of 416 S. 10th St., had picked up some papers and trash and was throwing it into the furnace when the flames flared back, igniting her bathrobe, police said.

Despite her severe burns she made her way upstairs and telephoned the fire department. The call was received at 8:56 a.m.

Firemen arrived to find Mrs. Stark in her yard. She had gone to a neighbor for help, but the neighbor was not at home.

Mrs. Stark was taken to St. Francis Hospital by ambulance. She is the widow of William Stark. A nephew, Mike Stern of Green Bay, was notified of the accident. Mrs. Stark lived alone following the death of her sister, Mrs. Sophia Stern.

Health Agency Asks Bicoounty Rabies Control

A resolution establishing a bicoounty dog rabies regulation was approved for submission to the Boards of Supervisors of Delta and Menominee Counties by the Delta-Menominee Health Dept. Thursday night.

The regulation, if approved by both boards, would provide for rabies immunization-licensure clinics conducted jointly by the Health and Sheriff's departments in cooperation with local veterinarians and the State Dept. of Agriculture.

The clinics are tentatively scheduled for next Feb. and March and would be conducted at a reduced rate to dog owners.

A revised budget including allocations of $28,500 from Delta County and $20,637 from Menominee County was presented after budget action by the County Boards.

The Board of Health also received reports on tuberculosis diagnosis, follow-up and hospitalization; the planned tuberculosis testing program to be carried out in Delta County schools in 1965; and the vision program in Menominee and hearing program in Delta County schools for 1965.

Charge Youth As Reckless Driver

A charge of reckless driving has been placed against Richard Boudreau, 22, of 322 S. 8th St., who police said drove at high speed and through stop signs in an effort to elude them at 2:02 a. m. today.

The officers reported that Boudreau drove at speeds up to 55 and 60 miles an hour and ran several stop signs before he was halted. He posted a bond for his appearance in traffic court at 4:30 p. m. Monday.

Death Claims William Machia

William Machia, 70, a longtime Hermansville resident died at 6 a.m. today at Anderson Memorial Hospital, Norway. The body was taken to the Boyle Funeral Home, Bark River.

Directors

MINNEAPOLIS — John F. Nash, president of the American Bank of St. Paul, has been named a Class A director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis and Joyce A. Swan, publisher of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, a Class B director.

Briefly Told

Escanaba police has issued a traffic court summons to Joseph J. Klatz, Gladstone Pte. 1, for driving with obscured and defective directional lights; and to Allen C. Kidd, Escanaba Rte. 1, for making an improper turn.

Rapid River Congregational Church announces that the church will furnish nursery services for parents wishing to attend the 9:30 a.m. service Sunday, Dec. 6. This service will continue through the new year.

ROBERT ASHLAND, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ashland of 1109 3rd Ave. N., has been promoted to petty officer third class in the U.S. Navy. He is a member of the crew of the USS Valley Forge and recently returned to San Francisco after a tour of the Far East and South Viet Nam, for which he was awarded an Expeditionary Medal, West Pacific. Mrs. Ashland recently returned from the West Coast where she visited her son.

Sheriff Faces Charges With 20 Other Men

Meridian, in an adjoining county. They were taken to an officers lounge at the Meridian Naval Air Station.

As the group stood, waiting for U.S. Commissioner Esther Carter to arraign them, lawyers told them to say nothing. All were silent.

The commissioner released the 18 on $5,000 bond each. Another was arrested at Gulfport, on the Mississippi coast, and another at Shreveport, La.

Freed On Bond

The last, Tommy A. Horne, 28, of Meridian, owner of a plumbing firm at Bonita, La., was arrested at his home Friday night when he returned from a business trip. Horne, one of two arraigned on accessory charges, was released on $3,500 bond. The other man charged as an accessory, Earl B. Akin, 32, a Meridian trailer salesman, was freed earlier on $5,000 bond.

The nine persons identified with Price by the FBI complaint as plotters were Jimmy Arledge, 27, Meridian truck driver; Horace Doyle Barnett, 25, former Meridian salesman; Travis M. Barnett, 36, Meridian garage operator; Alton Wayne Roberts, 26, Meridian salesman; Jimmy Snowden, 31, Meridian truck driver; James E. Jordan, 38, Gulfport, Miss., construction worker; Billy Wayne Posey, 28, Philadelphia service station operator; Jerry McGraw Sharpe, 21, Philadelphia used car salesman; and Jimmy Lee Townsend, 17, Philadelphia service station attendant.

No Specific Link
Jordan, who did not make bond, was the only one held in jail.

The other nine, also charged as violating the civil rights of the three workers but not specifically mentioned as having been involved in the plot, were: Burke; Bernard L. Akin, 50, Meridian salesman; Olen L. Burrage, 34, Philadelphia truck company operator; James T. Harris, 30, Meridian truck driver; Frank J. Herndon, 46, Meridian drive-in restaurant operator; the Rev. Killen; Sheriff Rainey; Herman Tucker, 36, Philadelphia contractor; and Oliver R. Warner Jr., 54, Meridian grocery store operator.

Members Of Klan

Identified by the FBI as members of the Ku Klux Klan, an anti-Negro terrorist organization, were Bernard Akin, Harris, Herndon, Jordan and Warner. The FBI said others were Klan sympathizers.

Laurel Weir of Philadelphia, attorney for Sheriff Rainey and some of the others, said "our clients are innocent. They have not been indicted by any grand jury and have not even been bound over to await action of the grand jury, but have merely been placed under temporary bond."

On Aug. 4, the FBI dug the bodies from the earthen dam. Price assisted, Chaney, the Negro, had been viciously beaten. All had been shot, Tucker, one of those arrested Friday, was the contractor who built the dam.

Informers Will "Get It"

Reaction to the arrests Friday was varied. The National Urban League praised the arrests as an "outstanding effort to protect the civil liberties and freedoms of American citizens."

The Rev. Martin Luther King, who has criticized the FBI's effectiveness in the South, commended the agency but said "honesty and realism compel me to admit that it will be very difficult to get a conviction."

In Philadelphia, a waitress said "the arrests are the start of another Civil War."

Many Philadelphians thought the FBI paid a local informer for clues in the case.

"He's the one who will get it," the waitress said.

School Board Meets Tuesday

The Escanaba Area School Board of Education will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the School Administration Building with its first "light agenda" in months.

Only nine items are scheduled for discussion, three with no recommended action and three others of the "routine" variety.

The Board is expected to grant approval to join a new athletic conference with Kingsford, Iron Mountain, Menominee, Stephenson, and Holy Name, pending approval of its millage proposal for operating expenses on Dec. 22.

Escanaba has dropped its membership in the Great Lakes Conference, effective this year.

The Board last month authorized a 4.5 mill tax for five years to meet operating expenses be placed on a special ballot Dec. 22. Unless voter approval is received, it is expected that the athletic program would be one of many items eliminated for 1965-66 to save money on coaches salaries and equipment costs.

The 1964-65 school budget has a deficit of about $125,000 which is expected to grow to $323,000 in 1965-66 unless additional operating funds are obtained from taxpayers.

A resolution concerning election procedures and inspectors is expected to be passed Tuesday.

Also listed for action is a recommended policy for sale of school property.

Discussion items with no recommended action include the Dec. 22 election, the Catherine Bonifas technical school, and the Michigan Education Association Professional Status and Standards Committee.

The technical school building, no longer used since the new high school building was occupied, had been placed up for sale but was not sold.

Stove Explodes In Wilson Home

WILSON—Mrs. William Vincent Sr. suffered minor bruises when the bottled gas stove in her kitchen exploded about 5 p. m. Friday. The blast broke windows in the kitchen.

Mrs. Vincent had lighted the oven and was lighting the second burner on the top of the stove when the blast occurred. The cause was perhaps a faulty oven.

Two of Mrs. Vincent's children and three grandchildren had left the kitchen for the living room just minutes before the explosion.

Obituary

Funeral services for Peter N. Ethier were held at 9 a. m. today at St. Anne's Church with Father Stephen Maynard officiating. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery. Military rites were conducted by Archie Wood, chaplain. Pallbearers were Chet White, Francis Donovan, Ray Dube, Roy Jensen, Roy Olson and Arnold Lan-cour.

Pope Launches Drive To Help Poor, Suffering

BOMBAY, India (AP) — Pope Paul VI flew home to Italy today, completing an historic four-day mission to the heart of Asia, where he dramatically initiated a world drive to help the poor and suffering.

The Pope had met with presidents and prime ministers, sat in quiet discussion with leaders of eastern churches, and walked among the destitute as a common pastor, weeping at the misery he saw.

He left by Alitalia jetliner for Rome just before noon, Bombay time.

Cheered By Throngs

Tens of thousands of Romans turned out to cheer the Roman Catholic pontiff on his drive from Rome's Fiumicino airport through the Eternal City.

Deeply moved by what he saw as he walked through Bombay's wretched slums, the Pope Friday issued a plea to all nations to halt the arms race and use at least part of the funds to help poor countries.

His appeal, directed at newsmen in order to mobilize public opinion around the world, said: "We entrust to you our special message to the world. Would that the nations could cease the armaments race, and devote their resources and energies instead to the fraternal assistance of the developing countries."

"Would that every nation thinking thoughts of peace and not of affliction and war, would contribute even a part of its expenditures for arms to a great world fund for the relief of the many problems of nutrition, clothing, shelter and medical care which affect so many peoples."

Mounts Great Altar

Immediately, Sen. Giacinto Bosco asked his party to urge the Italian government to promote an international agreement for combating poverty and famine in underdeveloped countries.

The Italian senator suggested that Italy divert one per cent of its annual defense budget — possibly $21 million — to a world anti-poverty fund.

During his last morning in India, the Pope visited several Bombay church congregations, including the Basilica of Mount Mary and St. Peter's Church.

He also mingled for an hour with bishops of India. More than 75 of them were in Bombay from throughout the country for the 38th International Eucharistic Congress, which occasioned his visit to India.

The pontiff walked and prayed for an hour in a procession that moved 3½ times around a great tiered altar, mounting it tier after tier as on a symbolic Mt. Calvary.

From the altar, in the oval site of the congress, the Pope said a prayer for two who died during his Indian visit: an Indian photographer killed on the day of the Pope's arrival, and an American priest, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John Brosnan of Huron, S.D., who died Friday.

Marrier Elected President Of Musicians Union

Chet Marrier was elected president of Local 663, Musicians' Union, by the membership at their annual meeting this week. W. D. "Pete" Ladouceur is the retiring president.

Also elected to office were Herb Peterson, vice-president; John DeChantal, reelected secretary-treasurer; and Ray Cartwright, business agent. Bill Lyons becomes a new member of the board and sergeant-at-arms.

DeChantal will represent Local 663 at the International Convention to be held in Minneapolis this spring.

Plans for the annual party were discussed and a tentative date of Monday, Jan. 25, was set for the gala affair. Lunch was served following the business meeting.
